

Ellie Goulding, Ritual

We're right into a place of fire
We hold our heads up high tonight
And we breathe the smoke of fear we owe
We let our hearts upside tonight

But in my scarred skin cause I know I've sinned
And it plagued the air on my house Ruben
There's a sound of him in the darkest words
And I know my own fears, I understand

It's a ritual, I know you feel it
It's a ritual, I know you've seen it
It's a ritual, I know you feel it
You feel it, you feel it, you feel it

Into the death and shoots as far
Too late to be with you'd from high
You see it's a thought those guys was he
Our faith he'll hear our cries a ghost

And he won't stop here, acting with my fear
There's a raging fire and it burns so mean
But I'm ready now, but I'm ready now

It's a ritual, I know you feel it
It's a ritual, I know you've seen it
It's a ritual, I know you feel it
You feel it, you feel it, you feel it

It's a ritual, I know you feel it
It's a ritual, I know you've seen it
It's a ritual, I know you feel it
You feel it, you feel it, you feel it

The ritual, we lose it all
The ritual, we lose it all
The ritual, we lose it all
The ritual, we lose it all

It's a ritual, I know you feel it
It's a ritual, I know you've seen it
It's a ritual, I know you feel it
You feel it, you feel it, you feel it

The ritual, we lose it all
The ritual, we lose it all
The ritual, we lose it all
The ritual, we lose it all

The ritual, we lose it all
The ritual, we lose it all
The ritual, we lose it all
The ritual, we lose it all
