

Elliot Smith, Amity

amity amity amity amity amity amity amity caught stars in her arms hello hello kitty happy in New York City amity walking like a lucky charm I'm a neon sign and I stay open all the time so let's go, go go go amity amity God don't make no junk but it's plain to see he still made me he told me so, I'm good to go I'm ready to go

'cause you laugh and talk and
'cause you make my world rock I'm so, so so so

good to go
