

Elliott Smith, Mr. Goodmorning

I saw you with mr. goodmorning
Some velvet rope on the curb
He gave me a wink for a warning
I saw the "Do Not Disturb Me";

Don't try reading my mind, it isn't gonna get you anywhere
Going by, just between us
I won't cry i wasn't even there

I made the interior landscape
Where he's been dancing with you
Fell in like a leaf on the water
Nowhere that i'm going to now

Don't try reading my mind, it isn't gonna get you anywhere
Going by, just between us
I won't cry i wasn't even there

But you could do but you won't
I want future and you don't
If a kind of mouth is laughing out

I saw you with Mr. Goodmorning
There's been some others before
And when you've decided he's boring
That's when he'll think he adores you

Don't try reading my mind, it isn't gonna get you anywhere
Going by, just between us
I won't cry i wasn't even there
