

Elliott Yamin, Let Your Heart Lead

Whoa yeah

I seem preoccupied
I see it in your eyes
You've got that worried look again
Your thinking way too much
Your losing faith in us
I can tell your close to giving in

Don't keep trying to over analyze
Your denying how your feeling inside
Just this time
Before you make up your mind
Let your heart lead
And maybe it'll find me
Maybe it'll find me
Maybe it'll find me
Whoa

You tried to figure out
Why you have so many doubts
And now your even more confused
Come here close to me
I want to put your mind at ease
There's only one thing that I need you to do

Don't keep trying to over analyze
Your denying how your feeling inside
Just this time
Before you make up your mind
Let your heart lead
And maybe it'll find me
Maybe it'll find me
Maybe it'll find me
Whoa

Don't keep tryin' to over analyze
Your denying how your feeling inside
Just this time
Before you make up your mind
Let your heart lead
And maybe it'll find me
Maybe it'll find me
Ooooo
Let your heart lead
And maybe it'll find me
Oh oooo oh
