

Elliphant, Where Is Home (ft. Twin Shadow)

When the way come you know we can't stay
And then blissness is calling out for me
And you flashes pink and life is colour blue

I'm not here,
I never die
We got love
We can still survive
And what I feel's what I gotta do
But can I rest with you

Where is home?
I'm starting to believe that it's gone!
Coz I don't find it
Through I'm looking
Keep searching
Where is home?
All I want is silence in my soul
But I don't find it
Through I'm looking
Keep searching

Yo, I'll be searching, searching, searching

Life is drifting so fast, I don't
I'm afraid to miss a moment where I'm free with you
Where we're both lost
And nothing we have cruel
I can jump cause I know I land
All I need is to trust your hand
And like the wind I will blow away
Unless you make me stay

Where is home?
I'm starting to believe that it's gone!
Coz I don't find it
Through I'm looking
Keep searching
Where is home?
All I want is silence in my soul
But I don't find it
Through I'm looking
Keep searching

Yo, I'll be searching, searching, searching
And I'm bursting, bursting, bursting
My mind is rumbling, rumbling, rumbling
Cause I'll be wondering, wondering, wondering
