

Eloy, Escape To The Heights

Civilization ending a mystic silent sound no more spirit rising wasteland all around bursting open the wall
no longer down hearted
I am hearing the call my mind is feeling my heart evil eyes around me no movement on my own cannot shake the present no visions here to roan
bursting open the wall
I am hearing the call
my mind is feeling my heart... heart... heart... deserted faces crowding me staring cold ahead
not consious of their destiny my heart won't be lead
I'll escape to the heights now I'll escape to the heights now.... now.... now.... now....
my heart won't be lead
I'll escape to the heights now I'll escape to the heights now.... now.... now.... now.... yonder in the distance a glowing ray of light escape from isolation the shadows in the night
acheiving new frontiers I've a reason to fight rejecting old values leave the darkness behind I'm feeling my freedom now.... now.... now.... now....
