

Elton John, Here's To The Next Time

Written by Elton John

Released as a UK B-side in 1968

Like I said baby

If you go astray

We'll then go on

Go your own sweet way

I thought you knew by now

You do just what you please

And here's to the next time

Here's to the next time

How many times

Have you gone before

And how many times

Have I forgiven you once more

Never had to wait

Like I waited for you

And here's to the next time

Here's to the next time

When you're gone

The time drags by

I wish you'd learn

Not to make me cry

To make me cry

So if you're gonna leave me

Never to come back

Break it to me gently

Or my world will crack

So be sure to let me know

That I'll never say

Here's to the next time

Here's to the next time

Here's to the next time
