Elton John, Hymn 2000

She chose the soft center And took it to bed with her mother And the ideal confusion Was just an illusion To gain further news of her brother

And the comfort of mother
Was just an appeal for protection
For the cat from next door
Was found later at four
In surgical dissection

And I don't want to be The son of any freak Who for a chocolate center Can take you off the street

For soon they'll plough the desert And God knows where I'll be Collecting submarine numbers On the main street of the sea

The Vicar is thicker
And I just can't see through to him
For his cardinal sings
A collection of hymns
And a collection of coins is made after

And who wrote the Bible Was it Judas or Pilate Well one cleans his hands While the other one hangs But still I continue to stand
