

Elton John, Piano Man

Lyrics for: Piano Man

It's nine o'clock on a Saturday the regular crowd shuffles in There's an old man sitting next to me making love to his tonic and gin

He says, son can you play me a memory
I'm not really sure how it goes But it's sad and it's sweet and I knew it complete When I wore a younger man's clothes

Sing us a song, you're the piano man
Sing us a song tonight
Well we're all in the mood for a melody
and you've got us feeling alright

Now John at the bar is a friend of mine he gets me my drinks for free and he's quick with a joke or to light up your smoke but there's someplace that he'd rather be

He says, Bill I believe this is killing me
As a smile ran away from his face Well I'm sure that I could be a movie star if I could get out of this place

Sing us a song, you're the piano man
Sing us a song tonight
well were all in the mood for a melody
and you've got us feeling all right

Now Paul is a real estate novelist who never had time for a wife and he's talking to Davy who's still in the Navy and probably will be for life

And the waitress is practicing politics as the businessmen slowly get stoned yes they're sharing a drink they call loneliness but it's better than drinking alone

Sing us a song, you're the piano man
Sing us a song tonight
well we're all in the mood for a melody
and you've got us feeling alright

It's a pretty good crowd for a Saturday and the manager gives me a smile
'cause he knows that it's me they've been coming to see to forget about life for a while

And the piano sounds like a carnival and the microphone smells like a beer and they sit at the bar and put bread in my jar and say, man what are you doing here?

Sing us a song, you're the piano man
Sing us a song tonight
and you've got us feeling alright
