

Elusive, Gemini

Tonight the darkness leaves no traces
One final way
Of your design
In all the dreams of all the days so strange and wild
Misery play
And the fire takes my heart tonight

This is the one
This is the nightfall
This is the one
The one to come
This is the one
This is the nightfall
This is the one
The one to come
Gemini

Tonight she dreams a dream of angels
And a place
Of no goodbyes
And when you leave me lonely shadows grow inside
Take it away
And the fire takes my heart tonight

This is the one
This is the nightfall
This is the one
The one to come
This is the one
This is the nightfall
This is the one
The one to come
Gemini
