Elvis Presley, Amazing Grace

(William J. Gaither, arr. Elvis Presley)

Amazing grace, oh how sweet the sound That saved a wreck like me I once was lost, though now I'm found I was blind, but now I see When we've been there ten thousand years Bright shining as the sun We've no less days to sing God's praise Then when, when we first begun Too many ages false and spent I have already hung This face and flock He saved us by His endless grace will leave me whole Amazing grace, oh how sweet the sound To save a wreck like me

I once was lost, but now I'm found I was blind, but now I see
