

Elvis Presley, Daddy's Little Girl

Your the end of a rainbow
My pot of gold
Your daddys little girl
To have and hold
A precious gem
is what you are
Your mommys life and shining star

Your the spirit of christmas
My star on the tree
Your the easter bunny
To mommy and me
Your sugar your spice
Your everything nice
And your daddys little girl

Your the end of a rainbow
My pot of gold
Your daddys little girl
To have and hold
A precious gem
is what you are
Your mommys life and shining star

Your the spirit of christmas
My star on the tree
Your the easter bunny
To mommy and me
Your sugar your spice
Your everything nice
And your daddys little girl
