

Elysium, Mourning

Wander the path of the night Silence comes so sweet to me clearness beauty of infinity
Majestic landscapes of metal misery Passionless without meaning so raven dark, but I find release from my inner pain
You are the reason of sadness
My forlorn love
The mourning of my soul, nature of my life
So I fall into oblivion, a good occasion to die
In the mourning, I see no reason to live
You are my liberty the key to other spheres the gleam from a falling star as you died my heart is broken Wander the path of the night
silence comes sweet to me
clearness beauty of infinity
Majestic landscapes of metal misery
so raven dark passionless without you there's no meaning in my life, so I fall into oblivion
