Embodyment, Critical Error

casualties of a non-war shooting themselves in the feet let me pray before you crush my heart and you swear that you do this in god's name stifling the psalms of the heart

take your hands off my throat
let me breathe

i'm suffocating
you slash my wrist
gave me a network
and devoured my art

broadcast, worldwide healing those for a price
