

Embrace, Everyday

Everyday is like a new beginning
When you're winning
And the whole world's at your feet
It never lasts if you're living for the past, come on Take my hand, I'll lead you on

Everytime I see it getting clearer
As it comes nearer
That's when I know I'll feel the same
I must confess instant feelings make a mess, come on Bring it 'round, I'll take it on

So we keep giving in
Everytime that we win
'Cause we know it's never gonna last
No we keep giving in
Everytime it's the same
'Cause we know the meaning will not last
We've been there before
And a million of you will not change that point of view no, no

Everyday you think that you can beat me
You won't beat me
I'll come back with more to spare
It's nothing new, no one's got a thing to prove, come on Gather 'round, I'll show you all

That we keep giving in
Everytime that we win
'Cause we know it's never gonna last
No we keep giving in
Everytime it's the same
'Cause we know that meaning will not last
No we keep giving in
Everytime that we win
'Cause we know it's never gonna last
No we keep giving in
Everytime it's the same
'Cause we know that meaning will not last
We've been there before
And a million of you will not change our point of view no, no
No, no
No a million of you will not change our point of view no, no
No, no
A million of you will not change that point of view no, no
