

Embrace, I Can't Feel Bad Anymore

I don't need time
To see if this hurts
All of my words
Will get you first
The last of my lines
Is leaving with you

And I don't need time
To see it come true
All that good work
Leaving with you
I found a home
For the truth

Now that everything I own
Lies before me where it's thrown
And the life I've never known
Seems so hollow

You've taken everything
That you want from me
I won't fight
I can not feel bad anymore

Right out of sight
Behind these eyes
She's gonna stay
Until that time
I found a home
Welcome through

Now that everything I own
Lies before me where it's thrown
And the life I've never known
Seems so hollow

Now that everything I own
Lies before me where it's thrown
I've been rumbled
I've been thrown
I'm so hollow

You've taken everything
That you want from me
I won't fight
We're both unarmed

I won't take another trip
On that lonely ship
Gone too far
I can not feel bad anymore
