

Embraze, Mystic

I want to see the brighter moon
Where the stars are the bridge
Between the mountains and the sky
Away from the low windows
Veiling the sky

You touch nothing with your hand
You can only feel the sun in your soul
Touch me, touch me
Cause I wanna sense the freedom

I want to walk without concrete walls
Without a knife in my back
Here only tears flow with me
Away from the dump of the double-faced
