

Emerson Drive, Last One Standing

Queen of the night
Life of the party
It's all an illusion
You can't hide that big a heart ache
So stop the delusion
Waitin' for someone's rescue
My arms are right here for you

Chorus

Through the wind and the rain
Through the laughter and pain
Count on me
And when life isn't fair and there's nobody there
I will be
In a world of pretenders
I am your defender
And when it all comes down
I'll be the last one standing

This is for life don't ever doubt it
You've already fallen
Love is alive so stand up and shout it
'Cause destiny's callin'
The others who stand behind me
They don't look nothin' like me

Chorus

Waitin' for someone's rescue
My arms are right here for you

Chorus

Yeah yeah
I'll be the last one standing
Through the wind and the rain
Through the laughter and pain
I'll be the last one standing
