

Emilie Autumn, Save You

How do I save you from a fate so sweet
As being torn to pieces by a loving hand
How do I save you from a voice so soft
As that which acquiesces to your each demand
How do I look upon the eyes I love
And send them down this path, I know it isn't right
How do I make you realize, my love,
That there is more to fear than strangers in the night

Chorus:

How do I save you
How do I set you free
Behind the curtain waits a darker world
If I can't make you leave
How can I save you from me

I think you've had enough experience
To differentiate between a heart of gold
And what you cradle in your gentle arms
Can you not recognize a soul already sold
How do I save you from the things I've been
I can't deny the past, it's written on my face
How do I save you from the mess you're in
When I can't make you leave this torturous embrace

Chorus
