

Emily Harder, Tomorrow

Vs 1

Tell me something , tell me the truth
I need to hear it, need to hear it from you
How could you say that, how could you doubt
Being together's what we were all about
You were right there in all my memories
But now you're fading back where I don't want you to be Seems like everything is fallin' apart in my life
Bu I know Ill be all right cause...

CHORUS

Everything will change tomorrow, tomorrow
And nothing will stand in my way
Then you will see, you will see me
Oh _____

Vs 2

I take a step outside, nothings right
As I look up to the cloudy sky
The way its going now, things aren't working out
Being together's all I think about
Running in circles, back and forth, up and down
Don't think that you'll be coming around
But I know differently deep inside
I know I'll be all right cause....

CHORUS

Everything will change tomorrow, tomorrow
And I will be - the one you wanna see, wanna see, you will see me
Everything will come through tomorrow, no more worrying
Cause nothing will stand in my way
Then you will see, you will see me.

BRIDGE

You know just as well as I do things are going to change
Once tomorrow comes these things... they'll never stay the same

CHORUS

Everything will change tomorrow, tomorrow
And I will be the one you wanna see, wanna see, you will see me
Everything will come through tomorrow, no more worrying
Cause nothing will stand in my way
Then you will see, you will see,
Yeah you'd better believe, that you will see
You will see me
Oh.....yeah!
