

Emily Osment, I Don't Think About It

I don't think about it
I don't think about it

Misunderstood..
Everybody feels that way sometimes.
oh-oh-ohh
I wish I could fit in with all the rest but I..
Oh-oh-oh
Got my own style
Got my own way
I don't care what people say
Yeah! , Cause

I don't think about it
I don't think about it
I don't think about it
being myself there ain't no doubt about it
I wont cry any tears
I just live without fear
I'm so happy cause I'm living my life and I don't think about it

A shooting star twinkling across the sky at night
Oh-Oh-Oh
Near, far I wish that everything would be all right
Oh-Oh-Oh
Got my own dreams
Got my own plans
Gonna get there anyway I can cuz,

I don't think about it
I don't think about it

I don't think about it
being myself there ain't no doubt about it
I wont cry any tears
I just live without fear
I'm so happy cause I'm living my life and I don't think about it

Got my own style
Got my own way
I don't care what people say
Yeah! , Cuz
I don't think about it
I don't think about it
I don't think about it
being myself there ain't no doubt about it
I wont cry any tears
I just live without fear
I'm so happy cause I'm living my life and I don't think about it

I don't think about it
I don't think about it
I don't think about it
being myself there ain't no doubt about it
I wont cry any tears
I just live without fear

Think about it.
Think about it.
Ohh.. I don't want to think about it woahh.. yeahhh..cause I'm living my life and I don't think about it.
