

Emily Osment, One of those days

Wake up to the sound of my alarm half an hour late
Fell out of bed I put my t - shirt on
It's got an orange stain
I lost my keys, I lost my head
I wish I'd just stay in bed
I need a break a sweetest escape

It's just one of those days
One of those days you wanna crawl into a cave
I wish it could be tomorrow or even yesterday
Out of my way
Cause I think I might go insane
It's just one of those days

Trippin out the front door traffic jam
Now my cellphone's dead
Had to say I'm sorry more then once
Forgot to switch with my friends
Let's just stop time lets ...
I only got pennies but I need a olime
I saw my ex and his girlfriend

It's just one of those days
One of those days you wanna crawl into a cave
Wish it could be tomorrow or even yesterday
Out of my way
Cause I think I might go insane
It's just one of those days

Wish I could jump ahead in time
Leave this drama far behind
Let me out before I lose my mind
I just wanna get away
Find myself a holiday
I swear I'm going crazy

Back off I'm about to break
Don't know how much more I can take

It's just one of those days
One of those days you wanna crawl into a cave
Wish it could be tomorrow or even yesterday
Out of my way
Cause I think I might be going insane
It's just one of those days
One of those days you wanna crawl into a cave
Wish it could be tomorrow or even yesterday
Out of my way
Cause I think I might be go insane
It's just one of those days!
