

Emirsian, Behind The Sun

All the things you may know
Your own private fashion show
You can feel it underground
We re both paralysed in this sound
You say everythings been said
Whore the people in your head
And the dark behind the sun
Will never come undone
Now we better play this game that we learnt
And rise on above
Before the day is done
Well take the road to nowhere
And start all overagain
On the sofa with a silver spoon
Ill take a ride on the moon
Down to earth I feel the same
Im constantly going insane
It doesnt matter if youre right or wrong
Ive been through this for far too long
It doesnt matter where you are
Its all about who you are
Now we better play this game that we learnt
And rise on above
Before the day is done
Well take the road to nowhere
And start all overagain
I still feel the same
And wonder why Im supposed to live without you
Hang on to your crown
Let your armour down
Look at the truth and what youll see will be wrong
