Emirsian, Dialogue

To figure out a dialogue Is all thats left for you around I cant help until you start Put yourself apart and laugh Analogue is just surreal Get lost and find a deal Is all you can do right now Drug abuse and alcohol This is what were standing for A thousand kisses deep we fall Everythings without control Now weve reached the ground Looking up for some hours Cleans your dishonest behaviour Sometimes all that we are Seems like fools in the dark We cant always run away Until we reach that open door I cant help until you start Put yourself apart and laugh Analogue is just surreal Get lost and find a deal Is all you can do right now Looking up for some hours Cleans your dishonest behaviour Sometimes all that we are Seems like fools in the dark
