

Emirsian, Wide Awake

You cry all night long
Its time to dream on now
Monday you sign on
Tuesday you fight all the doubts
A sip of wine and then its time
Start all over again
Just le me know
If you can help me explain
Cause now I live in wait for dawn to break
Im wide awake
Find out where you belong
Ask yourself whose mind was it on
A sip of wine and then its time
To start all over again
Just le me know
If you can help me explain
Cause now I live in wait for dawn to break
Im wide awake
