

Emm Gryner, Divine Like You

I's been one devil of a year
Came out of my blue to find you near

You are divine
Never wanted anyone
You are divine
Never wanted anyone
Not like you
Not like you
Not like you
Divine like you

Pulled the car over to love you
Loved you like the world was going to die
Continents lining up to burn
Thanked you for everything we'd learned

You are divine
Never wanted anyone
You are divine
Never wanted anyone
Not like you
Not like you
Not like you
Divine like you
Not like you
No...
Not like you
Not like you

No one's like you
