

Emm Gryner, Star Deep

Rain on the Soho Grand
Icicles and tired houses
Burning two grooves in the six
Dreamers always dream like this

You used to be just a face
Now all the sound waves rush to surround you
Coming up to breathe the air
Everything out of nowhere

I'm always watching from here
I know you're spinning inside
I'm always watching from here
You are star deep, and
I've been there myself sometimes

Lost June and a soul at once
Who said The Big Room was for goodbyes?
Keep running, running with all your might
To the scenes where you feel alive

In case you thought that I disappeared
I'm always watching from here
