

Emmanuel Carella, No Sky Is Blue

Look at you Your everything that's good
Innocence is you Yeah I'm the kinda guy
Who's gonna make you cry That's just what I do
I'll treat you wrong I'll tell a lie
And in the morning I'll be gone

And no sky is ever blue
And I'm not the one for you
Give me the reason
For walking away
And don't stop now
Or the rest of your life will be gone

Its hard for me Pushing you away
But wanting you to stay You're everything,
That I could ever want But I'm nothing that you need ..no
So stay away Don't come to close
The things you love You hurt the most

And no sky is ever blue
And I'm not the one for you
Give me the reason
For walking away
And don't stop now
Or the rest of your life will be gone

Don't wanna drag you down
Don't wanna mess around
I'm warning you girl
You'd be a fool for me
I'd bring you misery
I'm warning you
Warning you

So turn around girl just walk away go find somebody new I'm not the one
Not the one you need You deserve to know the truth

Well no sky is ever blue
No I'm not the one for you
And give me the reason for walking away
Don't stop now
Or the rest of your life will be gone

Coz no sky is blue
I'm not for you
No sky is ever blue
Give me the reason
For walking away
No sky is ever blue
Don't stop now
Or the rest of your life will be
Don't stop now
Or the rest of your life
Will be gone
