Emmylou Harris, Bluebird Wine

(Rodney Crowell)

Baby brought me in out off the highway Made me put my money in the bank, bank Straightened out my crooked way of thinking Made it purely pleasure when I drank

And It's all right I've just hit my stride Right off the bat Lord, I'm drunk on Bluebird Wine

Baby taught me a diff'rent way of thinkin' Like how to spend my evenings here at home List'ning to the music on the radio Drinking all the Bluebird we can hold

Baby says he'd really love a party We'll get some friends together feelin' fine Any friend of mine is worth his habit A belly full of baby's Bluebird Wine
