

Emmylou Harris, Everytime You Leave

(Charlie Louvin/Ira Louvin)

Everytime you leave
You tear the soul from me
I die a little more each time part
I can't control my dreams
My heart can't seem to learn
To turn and lock its door when you return

I know that you'll come back again
As soon as you get blue
And I know what will happen then
One kiss and I'll give one to you

Everytime You leave
You tear the soul from me
But I want to live so I'll forgive
Everytime you leave
