

Emo Side Project, A Heart Shaped Balloon

There's a boy staring at the ground,
Wishing so hard that everything was easy.
And he's holding a heart shaped balloon in his hand.
With his fist clenched so tight,
He must learn to say goodbye, oh.
But he wants to let go.
He wants to let go.

There's a girl staring into the sky,
Wishing so hard that everything was alright.
And she's wishing for a heart shaped balloon in her hand.
With her eyes closed so tight,
She must learn to say goodbye, oh.
Well just let go, it's that easy...
Just let go.

Just don't let go, never let go.
(Fall in love.)
