

Emo Side Project, Alone Forever

so heres the place where I say something today to make all my problems go away and somewhere along those lines i'll skip a few words but dont forget to say goodbye this time how can you call this love when you can't even feel at all looks like Ill be alone forever and today and if I fail to find the one whos right for me

I guess Ill be alone

this is where you show yourself to me and I realize that youre not the girl of my dreams so what is it that you see that is so bad in me will someone please explain this thing called love to me cause if its what you call Sunday drive then you have love all wrong

looks like Ill be alone forever and today

and if this is what you call love then loves a crock of shit
