

Emo Side Project, Motionless

me and you, sitting motionless under the sun.
motionless in our love, in our love.
then you moved slowly, towards me but i didn't hold back my smile
no, i never hold back my smile.
i was still motionless, in awe of your perfection, in our love.

a lot of people think loves just a fling
but our love, darling, it's the real thing
at least in my heart.
and even forever wouldn't be long enough.
And even when you kissed my cheek
with your soft cute lips
and that puppy dog look in your eyes
i was motionless in our love, in our love

then you started pouting
oh honey, that was so cute when you stared pouting
i just sat there staring into your eyes.
i blinked a couple of times, but never said a word because you knew, i knew, you know what i was thinking, you knew what i was feeling,
i could see it in your smile.

funny how much one person can mean to you,
funny how much you mean to me.
&quot;honey, you mean the world to me,
you're my everything you're my all&quot;
i said softly, in barely a whisper.
and it was then, under the sun, when i turned to you and told you &quot;darling, i wanna to be with you forever..&quot;

and we both sat motionless.
in awe of each others perfection,
of our affection,
of our love.
