

Emo Side Project, Overrated

Over, it's over
I could read your eyes across the room.
Overated, love is overated.

But just so you know,
you spin me around like a tornado.
And just so you know,
I promised, I wouldn't go.

Catch two birds with one stone,
Catch two boys with one lie,
Leave the other all alone.

But as we sat in that car whisper
"I love you more than the stars."
Even though, you promised me
You had to go.

Love is overated.
