

Emo Side Project, Tonight Is The Last Night

last night i cried myself to sleep fearing that we wouldn't meet again i lost you once but never again i think you've changed

i wish you would talk to me but tonight is the last night i fell for you i don't think you ever knew i don't think of you like i used too i'll find someone new

broken heart broken dreams a broken boy now it seems
i'm lost again
i dreamt of you, you said bye i'm thinking about how it would hurt me broken boy now it seems that tonight is the last night
