

Emo Side Project, Wait Up

wait up, can't you see my fall? all over the place and down in your arms these nights have been wasted with her thinking of you, well listen to me. don't think cause you apologized i've forgiven you because I havent and probably never ever will you've broken my heart you went for the kill...

"Say goodnight, cause this my last goodbye I want to love you I just can't right now," she said

wake up, can't you hear me lie? all over the place especially to you
these nights have been wasted with her thinking of how, I could dump you don't think cause I act this way I really love you, because I havent
and probably never ever will i'm breaking your heart i went for the kill...

And I can see your smile it breaks my heart
so helpless, so hopeless so whipped I can't explain it, but how long can you fake your smile before it starts to hurt?
so hopeless, so broken you can't explain it, but you're wrong.
