

Emo Side Project, When It Rains its raining no its pouring outside and it won't seem to stop no matter how I try and try it just keeps pouring down enough to make me sad to bring you here now if only I could find some shade it would all be ok but stuck in the middle of no where my hair is dripping wet and im starting to get a cold but as long as you're here holding my hand it will be all right and if I shout at the sky loud enough would it all come down? probably so

why does it always seem that every time it rains im always sad and im down it could be worse or is it just that every time im sad it rains and when it rains it pours I swear to god everything I know, is going to end but as long as you here with me it will be a happy end
