

emocean drive, FWB

Oh, great, it's another friendzone
Yeah, Baby, hit me one more time
Facepalm. Could you do me a favor?
Let's be friends with benefits tonight

She's so young, she's so wild and free
The cutest smile, the prettiest eyes I have ever seen
She likes whiskey, she likes Mötley Crüe
She stares at stars every night just like I do

She's a rebel, though she's super smart
She plays me as if she plays darts for fun
She reads Freud and she comprehends
She's like a rabbit I just wanna and I need to chase
