

Empires, Modern Love

I had a secret I've been dying to leak
Oh, it's a killer to keep
My crime occurred when rationality slept
I had enough to be dead

Then I heard a rumor I felt was right
Before the public had spied
You're spinning multiple lives
Let's get down to the love tonight
You wear your lover's eyes
And I'll be wearing mine

Maybe you can fool your momma
But you won't be fooling me
I've always seen you coming
Thinking you were indiscreet
And while you're misbehaving
I'll be fooling with your heart

I had a secret I've been dying to leak
Now it's a pleasure to keep
My crime occurred when rationality slept
Now it continues to rest

Then I heard a rumor I felt was right
Before the public had spied
You're spinning multiple lives
Let's get down to the love tonight
You wear your lover's eyes
And I'll be wearing mine

Maybe you can fool your momma
But you won't be fooling me
I've always seen you coming
Thinking you were indiscreet
And while you're misbehaving
I'll be fooling with your heart

I saw you right there
I saw you right there
I saw you right there

Maybe you can fool your momma
But you won't be fooling me
I've always seen you coming
Thinking you were indiscreet
And while you're misbehaving
I'll be fooling with your heart

Baby, you're the fool tonight
Baby, you're the fool tonight
Baby, you're the fool tonight
Baby, you're the fool tonight
Baby, you're the fool tonight
Baby, you're the fool tonight
Baby, you're the fool tonight

Maybe you can fool your momma
But you won't be fooling me
I've always seen you coming
Thinking you were indiscreet
And while you're misbehaving
I'll be fooling with your heart
