

En Vogue, Giving Him Something He Can Feel

(Shoo)

Verse 1

Many say that I'm too young to let you know just where I'm coming from.
But you will see
it's just a matter of time
my love surely make you mine

(1)

Well, I'm
Livin in a world of ghetto life
Everyone Seems is so uptight
Nothin's wrong, it's alright, my man
I like the way we carry on His love will send me on and on with my man
People out there can you understand

I'm givin him somethin he can feel to let him know this love is real
This love is real

Verse 2

So much joy for us it seems
So much hope for material things
Are they only in my dreams?

(hey, oh yeah)

And that's exactly why I'm singing this song to you
To let you know that real dreams do come true.
You tell me 'what does it mean'.

Repeat (1)

Repeat (2) to a fade
