

En Vogue, New Day Callin

Woke today
Hypnotized
A blissful shimmer
Lit my window
Changed my eyes
Changed my mind
A new day callin'

It's what I see when I dream
It's what I feel when I pray
Except I'm redeemed
And this time I'm awake
Like a ringin' bell
That's freedom's spell
A new day callin'

Now nights get cold
And you know that there's gonna be rain
But that's yin and yang, my brother
You can't have one without the other

The morning shines new light
So that I can see
That I never left this road
That brings me sweet, sweet liberty
Like a ringin' bell...
That's freedom's spell...
A new day callin'

Like a ringin' bell...
That's freedom's spell...
A new day callin'

Woke today
Summer phase
All my yesterdays
Behind me
This new color of life
Can't deny it
A new day is callin'

The winter storm blows winds
That won't forgive
But rest your heart on one sure thing
The winter turns to spring

The morning shines new light
So that I can see
That I never left this road
That brings me sweet, sweet liberty
Like a ringin' bell...
That's freedom's spell...
A new day callin'

Like a ringin' bell...
That's freedom's spell...
A new day callin'

The morning shines new light
So that I can see (The morning shines new light
That I never left this road
That brings me sweet, sweet liberty
Like a ringin' bell... (Like a ringin' bell)
That's freedom's spell...

A new day callin'

Like a ringin' bell...
That's freedom's spell...
A new day callin'

Yeah yeah yeah, can you hear it?

The morning shines new light
So that I can see (So that I can see, yeah)
That I never left this road
That brings me sweet, sweet liberty
Like a ringin' bell... (Like a ringin' bell)
That's freedom's spell... (That's freedom's spell)
A new day callin'

(Yeah, can't your hear it callin'? Yeah yeah...)

Like a ringin' bell...
That's freedom's spell...
A new day callin'
