

End Of Green, Astrobastard

There is no place i can be oh so lonely i feel when this sadness surrounding my heart
there must be a way on the end final day when i disappear in the dark I will never be free my whole life buried me don't know where i do belong so i live in a dream it is not what it seems so it finally ends when i am... specially dying for my dreams god has choosen me the one there must be any other way I dont know where i belong...
