

Endo, Shame

SHAME

Take me low
Feed me slow
Leave me empty
Nothing's right when they've all found you guilty
Shame that you can't see
That all the things that pass through me
Makes me say

Rape me slowly
Take my skin
Leave me under
Bleeding within
You stabbed in the back
Look what you left
All naked by myself

It's ok when you're wrong
And then let me
I'm not sure
I know
Tell me
Shame that you can't see
That all the things that pass through me
Makes me say

Rape me slowly
Take my skin
Leave me under
Bleeding within
You stabbed in the back
Look what you left
All naked by myself

It's a shame
Shame on you
It's a shame
