

Endo, Simple Lies

lost impatience demeaning purpose tied so tight your trying to inspire lack of faith a greater imagination a perfect perception of guilt written photographs of you.
of you besides, besides

Simple lies

what we are
and what we have
wont hurt any more

simple lies

what we are

what we have

suddenly waiting

for a moments with you

as i taught you into nothing understand my hate for you what is wrong and what is right ill push you through

i cant live with or without you

besides, besides

Simple lies

what we are

and what we have

simple lies

what we are

what we have

wont hurt anymore

You told me to keep suicide

will rest of death

im waking anyways

dont try to kill myself and forget it again

besides, besides, besides, besides!

Simple lies

what we are

and what we have

simple lies

what we are

what we have

Simple lies

what we are
