

Engelbert, Nothing's Gonna Change My Love For

Nothing's gonna change my love for you
You wanna to know by now how much I love you
One thing you can be sure
I will never ask for more than your love

Nothing's gonna change my love for you
You are the know by now much I love you

The world make change my hope through but nothing change my love for you

Nothing's gonna ...

Nothing's gonna ...
