Engelbert, Torero

Intro

She was just a child when she fall in love and he was everything that she'd been dreaming of she was proud to be the princess of a brave matador cause she knew that it was her that he was always fighting for.

She brings him spanish roses cause she can still remember all of the spnish roses her lover gave to her.

Torero te quiero. Torero te quiero.

And now he's just a dream that she used to love cause deep inside her heart she's hold the memory of the days she used to watch him as the crowd sheered his name to the day he lost the battle and they acrried him away.

She brings ... Torero ...

She brings ... Solo Torero ...

She brings ... She brings ...
