

Engerica, The Smell

Reeling in the feeling in the middle of my eye
Got a feeling that it's burning and there is no reason why
Wonder Years, remember Winnie? Her face was fat but her legs were skinny
I lied to my heart but my heart wouldn't listen
You spin me around until I'm sick on the ground
And I can't say no cause I don't know how

Yeah I could tell by the smell I was gonna get it
Well it works and the babies model too
I took a chance and I found it was all for nothing
You and I we could die wait a minute...

Redefine the situation everybody's on vacation
I don't wanna be a patient
Rudda rudda rudda yay!

Liar cheater bogey eater
Look out everyone here comes Peter!
Yeah I know you're right
But that doesn't mean that you're gonna win the fight

AAGH!
