Englishman J., Fade

Oooooo yeah
Was I more than you bargained for
Was I too much to take
Did I push it all much to far
Did I waste all the rage
Walkin' under ladders
Steppin' on sidewalk cracks
Runnin' down dark alleys
Trippin' over black cats

Was I less than you needed
Was I not to your taste
Could I not stop the bleeding
Do you remember the days

I was all that you wanted
I was everything you craved
And now you complain
That you don't like the taste
Well I can recast the scene
But it still plays the same
Cause I'm too strong to love
And I'm too weak to change

Well I, I gotta get out of this place that I'm in Cause I'm running this race I can't win
But I'll make you forgive me and then
I can drag you down with me again
I will drag you down with me again
Let me drag you down with me again

I'm so empty and ugly
Dirty and ashamed
But I'll never say I'm sorry
Never take the blame
I will teach you to hate me
And push you away
And in the end you'll be happy
To just let me fade
