

Enigma, In The Shadow, In The Light

I promise you, for all my life
I'll be Always on your side
In the shadow, in the light.

I'll follow you, wherever life goes
But I'll always be aside
In the shadow, in the light.

But if we don't understand...
Hell is happy, heaven is sad
And that's the result of our brain...
Insane...

Caravan of life
By day and by night
Every tile's a part of life
If it's shadow, or if it's light

I promise you, even when the tide is high
I'll be always on your side
In the shadow, in the light
