

Eno, Brian, My Squelchy Life

My squelchy life

My squelchy life

My squelchy life

Waits around corners

Nasty wife by sticky gap

My squelchy life

Follows in soft shoes

It's catching up

My squelchy life

Stands there grinning

Big white teeth, hairy white fingers (Anything, Anything)

I'll give it anything to go away, anything

Anything, anything, anything, anything, anything, anything.

My squelchy life

My squelchy life

My squelchy life

My squelchy life
